

TODAY

Prez PAM will give a “State of the Union” address and preside over a Club Assembly where our august Board will wax poetic.

LAST WEEK

The theme of Noon Rotarians at the podium continued as JIM HOLMES gave a very interesting talk that started with a local look at Redlands Community Hospital, a regional look at healthcare issues facing California and a national look at issues facing healthcare and healthcare reform. JIM’s comments included the positive impact of immigration on an aging population, the need for more physicians and nurses, and the rationale for mandatory insurance provisions if coverage restrictions such as pre-existing conditions, etc, are eliminated.

NEXT WEEK

Ashley Hudgens was a University of Redlands student interested in international constitutional law when she was awarded a Rotary Ambassadorial Scholar scholarship to South Africa. Topics that Ms. Hudgens might draw from for her talk include her scholarship experience or her interest in mentoring/tutoring children who have lost parents to HIV/Aids.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Major Projects Chair PAT MEYER reminds all that April 30th is the “all hands on deck” volunteer service day.

MEMBER MUSINGS

Hatfield Buick hasn’t expanded its product offering to include the Ford/Lincoln line – the car we see across the street on Thursdays with dealer plates is JIM BRASWELL’s.

PAUL GRANILLO, President and CEO of the Inland Empire Economic Partnership, was featured in the lead story in the March 7th issue of “The Business Press”. Since coming on board in April 2010, PAUL has been charged with the task of taking a holistic look at the Inland region and righting IIEP’s financial ship.

LARRY WORMSER did not make a planned, quick trip last week to Beaverton, Oregon. Prez Pam should note that the trip was to visit a Kiwanian and that when asked about whether he intended to obtain a travel permit, LARRY’s response was “I print my own”.

Add should be back: the latest summary of MARK BULOT’s transgressions for Prez PAM in chronological order includes a Paso Robles wine tasting trip, a Big Bear Lake poker party weekend, a Saint Patrick’s Day extravaganza and a sightseeing jaunt to Monument Valley. A C-note would be too kind...

Add C-note: This is pretty close to the amount that BOB HODGES and CINDY ANDREWS (albeit indirectly) each won at a recent golf outing.

BIRTHDAYS

KEVIN CORREIA	March 19 th
CAROLE INMAN	March 4 th
IRV NEASE	March 8 th
JOHN PATTERSON	March 7 th
BOB WEST	March 2 nd

Add birthdays: CAROLE BESWICK can probably remember a time when “Dear Fellows” could be heard interspersed with “Dear Rotarians” when the birthday song was sung.
