

TODAY

Kara Hunter, Executive Director of Court Appointed Special Advocates (“C.A.S.A.”) of San Bernardino County, will talk about C.A.S.A.’s efforts to help abused and neglected children living in foster care throughout San Bernardino County.

LAST WEEK

Alex Parades with the Redlands Police Department and Deborah O’Hara spoke about FACES of Redlands – an art event to increase awareness about homelessness in Redlands. It was an interesting program and a surprise to some that there are 170+ “regular” homeless individuals in Redlands.

NEXT WEEK

JACK OSBORNE will introduce Greg Malstead, International Director & Director of Interventions for Freedom Firm. Freedom Firm seeks to eliminate child prostitution in India and provide long term options for rescued girls.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Add OSBORNE: March 18th is the deadline to get applications for Rotary Ambassadorial Scholarships to JACK for consideration.

You haven’t lived if you haven’t been to a Rotary District Assembly! This year’s Assembly is March 26th and will be at the Lakeside High School campus. See RAY WATTS or SEAN LUGO if you would like to carpool.

MEMBER MUSINGS

JIM WATSON gave a moving encomium for colleagues Monroe Seiberling and Malcolm Heppenstall at their January 25th retirement soiree. Since Epic Management and Redlands Community Hospital sprang for the event, PeZ PAM might consider fining JIM HOLMES, ZACK TUCKER and STAN WEISSER some multiple of what they would have paid if the bar hadn’t been hosted (STAN should be looking at a “C note” at least).

KEVIN GUSTAFSON will be more than willingly to cover the cost of fines should Prez PAM decide to “visit” CAL BOOTHBY, MARK BULOT and KEVIN CORREIA for their participation in KEVIN GUSTAFSON’s annual golf event.

If March’s Program Chair ROSS JONES’s shoes look a little scuffed it probably is as a result of ROSS’s volunteer shovel work while helping neighbors remove mud from their homes in the wake of the not so recent storms. Count on NATHAN GONZALES making a comment about “the smart end of a shovel” upon reading this.

PRESIDENT’S CORNER

I want to thank John Patterson and Sean Lugo for spearheading the RWBs this year. I have heard nothing but compliments on a wonderful evening. Having attending many of their planning sessions I know that there were many hands in the pot. Sincere thanks to all of you.
